

Group taxation

18th October 2010

Mark Solomon, Kaiwhakahaere, has confirmed that Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Tahu pays tax on all operations not deemed charitable.

“As trustee of the Ngāi Tahu Charitable Trust, Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Tahu is directly responsible for the delivery of charitable programmes and grants. Te Rūnanga adheres strictly, at all times, to the law governing charitable entities. The Ngāi Tahu Charitable Trust has an annual process where all our expenditure and operations are assessed to ensure they are ‘charitable’. Tax is paid on any income or operations that are not ‘charitable’.”
